applicable organic law,

“2. That all political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and established for their benefit; and, therefore, they have, at all times, an inalienable and indefeasible right to alter or abolish their form of government, in such manner as they may deem expedient”,(florida constitution, 1845 article 1, section2)

“20. That the people have the right, in a peaceable manner, to assemble together to consult for the common good; and to apply to those invested with the powers of government for redress of grievances, or other proper purposes; by petition, address, or remonstrance.”, (florida constitution, 1845 article 1, section20),

“27. That, should guard against transgressions upon the rights of the people we declare, that everything in this article, is excepted out of the general powers of government, and shall forever remain inviolate; and all the laws contrary thereto, or to the following provisions, shall be void.”, (florida constitution, 1845 article 1, section27),

“congress make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting its free exercise. It protects freedom of speech, the press, assembly, and the right to petition the government for a redress of grievances”, (1st Amendment Constitution of the United States),
